

The Vienna Institute for International Economic Studies

Global Development Network Workshop

Understanding Reform in Southeast Europe

Saturday, 22 November 2003

Venue: wiiw, Oppolzergasse 6, A-1010 Vienna

Aim: to discuss the issue of commonalities and heterogeneity among countries of the region with regard to their respective reform paths, and its impact on economic development.

Programme

- 9:00-9:30 Introduction: Michael Landesmann, wiiw, Gary McMahon, Global Development Network
- 9:30-10:00 Regional Paper (wiiw)
- 10:00-10:15 Coffee break
- 10:15-11:00 Country Paper: Bulgaria (Nikolay Markov, Centre for Economic and Strategic Research, Sofia)
- 11:15-12:00 Country Paper: Bosnia-Herzegovina (Fikret Causevic, University of Sarajevo, Vesna Bojicic-Dzelilovic, London School of Economics)
- 12:00-12:45 Country Paper: Montenegro (Veselin Vukotic, University of Podgorica)
- 12:45-14:00 Lunch
- 14:00-14:30 Analytical Country Studies of Growth and Economic Reform: Dani Rodrik, Kennedy School of Government, Harvard University
- 14:30-15:00 Summarized Country Paper: Serbia (Vladimir Gligorov, wiiw, Milica Uvalic, Perugia University)
- 15:00-15:45 Country Paper: Slovenia (Mojmir Mrak, Franjo Štiblar, University of Ljubljana, Peter Stanovnik, IER, Ljubljana)
- 15:45-16:00 Coffee break
- 16:00-16:45 Country Paper: Macedonia (Mihail Petkovski, Gligor Bishev, University of Skopje)
- 16:45-17:30 Country Paper: Croatia (Ivo Bicanic, Vojmir Franicevic, University of Zagreb)
- 17:30-18:00 Final discussion
- Evening Dinner offered by wiiw