PREFACE

With nearly two decades of transition over, rapid change is still the norm in Central, East and Southeast Europe. In May 2004 eight Central and East European countries joined the European Union, to be followed by Bulgaria and Romania in January 2007. The rest of the region is also integrating rapidly into the world economy, with many former reform laggards catching up particularly fast. Economic growth in the region has accelerated in the past couple of years, offering huge opportunities for trade and investment which are attracting increasing interest in business circles around the world.

The Central and East European countries continue to draw the attention of both the academic and business community even after their accession to the EU. With progress in stabilization and reforms, new interest in Southeast Europe and the business opportunities there emerge as well. Russia, and recently Ukraine as well, are also arousing interest as trade and investment partners. In these circumstances, academic scholars, analysts at multi-national corporations and banks, other investors, managers and policy makers all require comprehensive and reliable information on the basis of ascertainable facts. While the theoretical study of the transition and integration is essential to our grasp of the economic, political and social forces that must guide policy makers, it is also the sober assessment of business opportunities in the region that has become an equally urgent mission of wiiw research and analysis. These are the dual purposes of wiiw information services and of this handbook of statistics in particular.

The wiiw Handbook of Statistics 2006 represents already the twelfth volume in the annual statistical series produced by the Vienna Institute for International Economic Studies (wiiw) since the late 1970s. The present issue of the handbook takes account of the EU accession of ten Central and East European countries in May 2004 and January 2007 as well as the forthcoming integration/disintegration steps. The handbook has been rearranged and expanded accordingly, yet it again contains revised and updated annual and monthly statistics, covering key economic data on nearly all transition countries in Europe (Albania, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Croatia, the Czech Republic, Estonia, Hungary, Latvia, Lithuania, Macedonia, Montenegro, Poland, Romania, Russia, Serbia, the Slovak Republic, Slovenia and Ukraine), this time for the period 1990-2006. The reader will find here a rare comprehensive and unusually up-to-date English language collection of comparable key statistical information about recent economic developments in the new EU member states and the key transition countries of East and Southeast Europe. After the split in May 2006, the latest data for Serbia and Montenegro are already shown separately.

The statistics are largely compiled from original sources published in the respective countries. The individual time series, tables and colour graphs in this handbook have been directly extracted and processed from the statistical databases maintained and regularly updated by wiiw. These databases are also available online or on CD-ROM. The Vienna Institute for International Economic Studies (wiiw) is most grateful to the Computing Centre for Economics and Social Sciences (WSR), which provides hardware facilities and database software. We also thank Bank Austria Creditanstalt for the financial support in producing this volume. The handbook has been designed and edited by the wiiw statistical department. The tables and graphs in the handbook reflect information and updates of the wiiw databases as of October 2006. Please address any comments and questions to wiiw, A-1010 Vienna, Oppolzergasse 6, e-mail: wiiw@wiiw.ac.at, tel. (+43-1) 533 66 10, fax (+43-1) 533 66 10 50.

HINTS FOR ACCESS TO THE wiiw DATABASES

Data from the wiiw HANDBOOK OF STATISTICS 2006, both in significantly greater detail and continuously updated as new information is being released, are also accessible via wiiw databases either online or on CD-ROM. These databases are publicly available by subscription (see also wiiw's website for more details – www.wiiw.ac.at).

The labels listed in the first column of the tables in chapters I-VIII of the handbook refer to original time series in the Vienna Institute's wiiw Annual Database Eastern Europe, so the handbook may in effect also serve as a detailed index to the online access. The database, currently with almost 10,800 time series, contains the most important annual economic data on Albania, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Croatia, the Czech Republic, Estonia, Hungary, Latvia, Lithuania, Macedonia, Montenegro, Poland, Romania, Russia, Serbia as well as Serbia and Montenegro together, the Slovak Republic, Slovenia and Ukraine.

Coverage: The annual statistics on the economies of the above countries include general demographic data as well as time series on GDP, production, investment, consumption, labour market, wages and prices, financial data, national budgets, foreign trade by partners and commodity groups, balance of payments, external debt, and various indicators of living standard. Many of the time series reach back as far as the 1960s. Series on 'new countries' (Croatia, the Czech and Slovak Republics, Macedonia, Montenegro, Russia, Serbia, Serbia and Montenegro, Slovenia and Ukraine) are usually available only from 1989 onwards. Albania, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania are covered in less detail. Time series are updated and revised as soon as the original statistical sources become available. A detailed listing of all series in the database is available online.

Sources: The wiiw Annual Database Eastern Europe is based on data and information provided mainly by the national statistical offices and National Banks of the respective countries. These and additional sources also serve as a basis for wiiw's own research, estimates and projections. Texts, footnotes and explanations on the time series are in English. Chapters I-VIII/2 of the handbook are compiled from this source.

Access: Host of the wiiw Annual Database Eastern Europe is the Computing Centre for Economics and Social Sciences (Wirtschafts- und Sozialwissenschaftliches Rechenzentrum, WSR) in Vienna, which provides online access for external subscribers. Besides, the database may also be accessed via Thomson Financial Ltd, London and Global Insight Inc., Washington.

In addition to the wiiw Annual Database Eastern Europe, wiiw also maintains the more timely wiiw Monthly Database Eastern Europe, which serves as a tool in analysing current economic trends and fits the specific needs of wiiw Members. More than 1,200 leading indicators contained in that database monitor the latest key economic developments in the following countries: Bulgaria, Croatia, the Czech Republic, Hungary, Poland, Romania, Russia, the Slovak Republic, Slovenia and Ukraine. Time series usually start in 1990/91 and are continuously revised and updated. A selection of recent monthly statistics from this database is presented in Chapter IX of the handbook. The sources used for the wiiw Monthly Database Eastern Europe are the same as those for the wiiw Annual Database Eastern Europe. Texts and notes accompanying the time series are again in English.

Access: The wiiw Monthly Database Eastern Europe is available to validated users directly from wiiw via the Internet. Time series from the monthly database can be easily downloaded to any personal computer with MS Excel or another compatible software package, thus permitting a wide range of indigenous analyses. Alternatively, it can again be accessed online via Thomson Financial and Global Insight Inc.

The wiiw Industrial Database Eastern Europe contains nearly 10,400 time series on production, employment, wages, unit labour costs, productivity and foreign trade. The countries covered are Bulgaria, Croatia, the Czech Republic, Estonia, Hungary, Latvia, Lithuania, Poland, Romania, the Slovak Republic and Slovenia. The annual data relate to the period 1989-2005 and are arranged according to the NACE rev.1 sections of industry and 14 subsections of manufacturing. For Croatia, Estonia, Hungary, Latvia, Lithuania, Poland, Romania and Slovenia we provide even more disaggregated data of manufacturing for 23 industries which are identical with industries at the 2-digit level of the NACE rev. 1 / ISIC rev. 3 code. A selection of data from this database is presented in Chapter III/3 of the handbook.

Access: The wiiw Industrial Database is available on CD-ROM (annual updates) directly from wiiw. Using MS Excel software, this CD-ROM allows for easy comparison of key industry variables across countries and individual industries over time as well as for additional analyses.

The wiiw Database on Foreign Direct Investment in Central, East and Southeast Europe contains about 2,700 annual time series on FDI inflows and outflows, inward and outward FDI stocks by country and economic activity, and forms of FDI (including FDI-related incomes) for the period 1990-2005. The countries covered are Albania, Belarus, Bulgaria, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Croatia, the Czech Republic, Estonia, Hungary, Latvia, Lithuania, Macedonia, Montenegro, Moldova, Poland, Romania, Russia, Serbia, the Slovak Republic, Slovenia and Ukraine. FDI flows are taken from the balance of payments, stocks from the international investment position. A selection of data from this database is presented in Chapter VIII/3 of the handbook.

Access: The wiiw FDI Database is available in print as well as on CD-ROM (annual updates) directly from wiiw. The CD-ROM contains longer time series and provides tables in MS Excel, CSV and HTML format. Detailed methodological guidelines enable the user to interpret the data correctly.

EXPLANATIONS AND DEFINITIONS

Far-reaching political and economic changes, the emergence of new independent states in the region, currency reforms, etc., have also been affecting the quality and comparability of available statistics (the latest changes include the separate compilation of time series for Serbia and Montenegro, the EU accession of eight Central and East European countries in May 2004 and the forthcoming EU accession of Bulgaria and Romania in January 2007). During the period covered, the transition countries have been revamping their statistical systems, replacing old reporting methods with the concepts, classifications and methodologies used in market economies, in particular of the European Union by Eurostat. As in other areas, the individual countries' progress in this respect has been uneven. Data coverage, especially of the expanding private sector, is often incomplete. Statistics are frequently being revised several years backward, definitions and coverage change. These and other problems still adversely affect the data comparability over time, across individual transition countries and with advanced market economies. Wherever possible and meaningful, the euro (EUR, until end-1998 ECU) has been used as a common currency denominator in this handbook. The handbook reflects all available data revisions as of October 2006.

Note: All data in this handbook referring to Serbia are given excluding Kosovo and Metohia.

The most important definitions, qualifications and methodological changes are quoted in footnotes accompanying the respective tables. Below, some more general abbreviations and definitions used in the handbook are listed.

The Vienna Institute for International Economic Studies (wiiw)

First-hand expertise on Central, East and Southeast Europe

For more than thirty years, the Vienna Institute for International Economic Studies (wiiw) has been a leading source of timely, in-depth information and unbiased analysis of the economies in Central, East and Southeast Europe. With 18 staff economists, who together are fluent in almost a dozen Central and Eastern European languages, wiiw keeps constant watch of the shifting process of changes in the transition countries, helping clients assess evolving economic trends and prospects, search for new business opportunities and reduce uncertainty in entering these dynamic and increasingly important emerging markets.

As a backbone for its core research, wiiw maintains and regularly updates four principal databases – Annual, Monthly, Industry and Foreign Direct Investment – that are among the best available. Now containing more than 25,000 time series, the databases are prepared with a seasoned understanding of their sources and limits, integrated to be consistent over time and between countries and regions. Some time series go back as far as the early 1960s, two generations before the fall of Communism, often revealing trends and resources not captured by more recent research. wiiw databases are available both on CD-ROM and online via the Internet.

From years of observation and in-depth analysis of the former command economies and with intimate knowledge of the region as well as extensive contacts and research experience unequalled in the field, wiiw knows how to interpret the steps towards stabilization and restructuring, how internal and external pressures alike affect the changing behaviour of these markets and shape their rapid integration into the world economy. The wiiw staff economists specialize by area of interest, such as privatization, foreign trade and direct investment, labour markets, industry and agriculture, economic integration and regional developments or specific industrial sectors. wiiw participates in a number of international research networks and joint consultancies, and is available by contract also for special projects. Research results are issued in one of the Institute's series of regular publications (mostly in English) or jointly with international publishers. The majority of publications can be downloaded from the Institute's website (www.wiiw.ac.at).

wiiw has a Reference Library that is one of a small number of significant collections in this field. The repository of the institute's own research is also available to researchers' use in the library.

The wiiw Handbook of Statistics, published annually by The Vienna Institute for International Economic Studies (wiiw), contains revised, updated and expanded annual and monthly statistics on the new EU member states and the transition economies in East and Southeast Europe. This new issue covers key economic data on 18 countries (Albania, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Croatia, the Czech Republic, Estonia, Hungary, Latvia, Lithuania, Macedonia, Montenegro, Poland, Romania, Russia, Serbia, the Slovak Republic, Slovenia and Ukraine) for the period 1990–2006.

Most time series and tables have been directly extracted and processed from the databases maintained and regularly updated by wiiw. The statistics are largely drawn from original sources published in the respective countries and are also available online and on CD-ROM from wiiw.
